

Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

Be still
AND know

Take heart; it is I. Do not be afraid.

Prayer Before Worship: You make eloquent the tongues of children. Then instruct my speech and touch my lips with graciousness. Make me keen to understand, quick to learn, able to remember; make me delicate to interpret and ready to speak. Guide my going in and going forward, lead home my going forth. You are true God and true man, and live for ever and ever.
--St Thomas Aquinas

This Week's Prayer List: We pray for a portion of Zion's family, Marlys Lenzen; Keith Lenzen; Eric Lenzen; Curtis & Lori Lenzen, David Lenzen and Nathan Lenzen; Fern Lindemeier. We pray for those under a physician's care, in treatment or therapy, enduring hardships, for a strong faith.. We pray for those under a physician's care, in treatment or therapy, enduring hardships, for a strong faith.

Contribution Statements:

mid-year contribution statements can be picked up in the Narthex. In order to save on costs, we will only be mailing contribution statements that have not been picked up in July (for January-June) and January (for July-December). Statements for those who are homebound will be mailed.

The colors of the rainbow are a reminder of God's faithfulness
Here's some thought on what each color represents.

Red: The blood of Jesus shed for the redemption of humanity.

Orange: Endurance & strength: God's enduring love and faithfulness.

Yellow: God's glory & divine light shining upon His people.

Green: Growth, renewal, and eternal life found in Christ.

Blue: The heavens and God's sovereignty over all creation.

Indigo: Wisdom, spiritual insight, and the deep mysteries of God.

Violet: Signifies royalty and the majesty of God's kingdom.
